Enter your favorite photo in our 2023 Focus on Iowa Photo Contest.

OKAY, SHUTTERBUGS, we're now accepting entries in our 16th annual "Focus on Iowa Photo Contest".

Turn in the winning shot and you can claim our Grand Prize: a 2-day Mississippi River cruise for two, a vacation getaway worth over $800.00.

"My granddaughter Kenna lit up with delight as we enjoyed autumn splendor on a trip to a nearby pumpkin stand," noted Janet. "I just love seeing the excitement on her face."

Now it's your turn! Do you have a photo you're especially proud of that depicts the joy and beauty of living in Iowa? There are four categories in which you can enter it:

- Iowa Scenery—Photos that capture Iowa's scenic beauty, whether in small towns, along the backroads, in our state parks or on farms.

- Iowa People—This category is for photos of Iowans just being themselves or enjoying "the good life" our state has to offer.

- Iowa Humor—We're looking for photos that bring a smile to your face... pet capers, people antics, goofy road signs, you name it. If it depicts humor Iowans can appreciate, it belongs in this category.

- Corn-Fed Kids—You likely have photo albums or computer folders full of snapshots of your children or grandchildren "just being kids". Enter these family favorites that capture those endearing moments.

Our staff will carefully evaluate these photos and determine six finalists in each category. We'll then print these category finalists—one category each issue—and ask readers to vote for their favorite.

If your photo garners the most votes in your category, you'll take three of your family members or friends out to dinner at a restaurant of your choice, and Our Iowa will pick up the tab...including the tip!

Grand Prize River Cruise

Then, after all four category winners have been determined, we'll ask readers to vote again—this time to determine the Grand Prize winner. (See pages 60-61 for the photos in the running for this year's Grand Prize and cast a vote for your favorite.)

If your photo is voted the Grand Prize winner, you'll enjoy a 2-day Mississippi River cruise aboard the Riverboat Twilight. It's a riverboat built to recall the days when Victorian steamships graced the river. Mark Twain called them "floating palaces".

This leisurely cruise takes you from the Quad Cities upriver to Dubuque, where you'll spend the night at the swank riverfront Grand Harbor Resort. The next day, you'll head back downstream to complete your 188-mile journey. Along

Official Contest Rules

- You can enter your photos digitally or as 8x10 color prints. If you enter digital photos, it is important to submit only high-resolution photos. Because of our demanding printing standards, we cannot accept photos taken with cameras set on low-resolution/quality settings.

- Attach your name, postal address and daytime phone number for each photo submitted, plus the category in which you'd like to enter the photo. Also include pertinent details about where it was taken, any people who are in it, their relationship to you and why the photo is meaningful to you.

- The contest is open to anyone. No purchase/subscription necessary. But a contestant may enter no more than eight photos.

- You can email photos to us or submit them on a CD or as 8x10 color prints, making sure to include your contact information either way. If you email photos, send a separate email for each photo—attaching only one photo per email, please. (Make sure your email program is sending your photos at the highest resolution.)
